William & Mary Galway 2017

This handbook offers guidelines that we hope you will find useful in making your preparations and while studying in Galway. Please read the handbook carefully before your departure and bring it with you to Ireland, either as a paper or email copy. The program policies are included, along with lists of important items to bring with you, tips for handling your money, and precautions for safeguarding your health and belongings. In an effort to serve you best, the material in this handbook is edited each year and contains the latest information available to assist you in preparing for your trip. While we do our best to provide you with the most accurate information, inevitably some changes may take place and we will need to make adjustments. Your program director and the Global Education Office Advisor at the Reves Center will keep you informed of any changes.

Overview, Dates, and Money

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Fees: $5,825
- Program Director: Professor Christopher Owens, Dept. of Theatre (clowen@wm.edu)
- Accommodation: Students will share university apartments, which come fully furnished, including an equipped kitchen. Breakfasts are included Monday through Friday. Lunches are included Monday-Friday. Dinners are possible 3 times per week.

PROGRAM DATES

- Arrive June 16 – Depart July 15, 2017

PRE-DEPARTURE ORIENTATION

Students will be automatically enrolled in a 1-credit pre-course after the spring semester has begun. This will help you know what to expect, as well as how to prepare for your program. Dates and times are to be determined by the Program Director (meetings will not take place until after Spring Break).

MONEY

A note on currency: Regardless of the level of financial resources you may have available for your period of study abroad, all students share the same need to have quick access to their funds and, at the same time, to have their money protected against loss. The currency of Italy is the Euro (and exchanges to the US dollar at a rate of $1 US = .94 Euros (EUR) or 1 EUR = $1.07 USD (as of January 2017). You can check the current exchange rates on the web at <http://www.xe.com/ucc> or in the financial section of a large city newspaper.

Visa Information and Budgeting

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Passport

- You should apply as early as possible before departure to secure your passport through a Passport Agency (found in major cities), a local issuing office, a Federal or State Court House, or a Class I Post Office.

Start the process early so that there will be plenty of time to resolve any problems that may arise. If you will be using your current passport, make sure that it is good for six months after your return to the U.S. If it is not, you will need to renew it.

- Guidelines on renewing your passport or applying for a new one can be found at:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports.html>

Visa

- No visa is required for US citizens for summer study in Ireland. Non-US citizens should consult the foreign ministry of their home government for visa requirements for Ireland. If US citizens plan to travel beyond Ireland either before or after the program, check the State Department website for visa requirements. Travel within the EU does not require visas for US citizens.

BUDGET

- Your budget for incidental expenses will depend on your personal taste/extravagance and the amount of independent travel you intend to do before or after the program. For basic expenditures in Galway (dinners and incidentals) we recommend that you budget approximately $200 per week, plus extra money for shopping and traveling. It is probably possible to live for considerably less than this, but there is lots to do in Galway and you should allow yourself funds to take advantage of the city's offerings. Naturally, if you plan to do a significant amount of shopping and/or traveling, you should budget accordingly. Be prepared to spend according to your personal tastes and the amount of extra travel you plan to do during (and before/after) the program.
- Former students have reported spending $500-$1,500 on this program, with most students spending close to $1,000.
- Breakfasts and lunches are provided Monday-Friday, and some dinners will be provided. Other meals are the responsibility of the student.

Packing

General

- Many items you need can be purchased once you've arrived in Galway. For example, bring travel-sized toiletries to keep your bags light, and purchase full-sized items once you've arrived.
- Do not bring any items of sentimental value that you couldn't bear to lose.

Luggage

- Pack only what you can carry by yourself up 2-3 flights of stairs, or walk with for relatively long distances. A wheeled duffle bag or suitcase plus a generous tote or backpack for weekend travel should suffice. Returning students recommend that your carry-on be a backpack rather than a handheld bag if you plan to do any extra traveling.
- Do not pack valuables in your checked luggage.
- Put address labels and contact information inside and outside each piece of luggage.
- Pack medications in your carry-on luggage.
- Pack all sharp objects securely in your checked baggage.
- Pack all liquids in plastic bags to avoid leakage during travel.
- Place your camera in your carry-on. If you take film, carry it in a lead-lined travel pouch (available at camera stores).
- Put TSA-approved locks on all of your luggage so that it can be opened without the lock or bag being destroyed.

Clothes

- Bring easy care clothing items that are lightweight, drip dry, and wrinkle-proof, such as knits, permanent press, and cotton clothes. Dark colors are more practical than light, as they do not show dirt as easily.
- Pack clothes you can mix and match so as to give your wardrobe as much variety without having to pack as much.
- Only bring clothes you can imagine wearing often.
- Bring clothes that you can layer for various temperatures but assume that is will probably be much cooler than you are used to in the summer.
- Roll clothes instead of folding them; you will fit more in the bag, and have fewer wrinkles upon arrival.
- Travel Guru Rick Steves suggests "if you aren't going to wear it at least three times, don't bring it."
- Pack raingear. It rains a lot in Ireland, even in the summer.

Gifts

- Students often find that there are people they want to give gifts to at the end of their stay. Try to think of things that are unlikely to be available in Ireland: items made in your home region, calendars or books with photos of America's outstanding features (wildlife, national parks, plantations, cities, and so on), William & Mary paraphernalia, and the like.

For more tips, please consult the Summer Study Abroad Manual, as well as the “Know Before You Go” section of this handbook.

AN IMPORTANT NOTE ON ELECTRICITY IN GALWAY

Electricity in Ireland is 230 volts, 50 cycle alternating current (AC). For comparison, in the United States it is 110 volts, 60 cycle AC current.

If you plan on using your own 110-volt appliances, you will need a voltage converter, unless your appliance is designed to also work with 220 volts electricity (dual voltage). For example, most electronic equipment (laptop, camera, and phone chargers) is designed to work both at 110 and 220 volts. Plugging in an appliance that is not designed to run on 230/240 volts electricity without using voltage converter will most likely kill it and may cause fire!

Regardless of voltage, if your appliance has flat prongs, you will need a plug adapter: Irish sockets are designed to accept round prongs. Do get one before your leave!

As a matter of fact, Ireland uses the Type G electrical plug, a British three-pin rectangular blade plug that has a protective fuse inside to protect cords from high-current circuits. Type G outlets generally include safety switches. Remember ALL outlets all produce 230 volts!

Traveling to Galway

NOTE: You are responsible for your own travel arrangements to and from Ireland

AIRPORT & ARRIVAL INFORMATION

You are responsible for your flight arrangements to and from Ireland. You should fly into either Dublin Airport (DUB) or Shannon Airport (SNN). Students should plan to travel directly from the airport to Galway via bus service (available at both Dublin and Shannon airports). You should plan to arrive in the morning/early afternoon of June 16.

(As flights from the U.S. to Europe are overnight, this means leaving the U.S. on the evening of June 15.) The program officially ends July 15th (i.e. you will need to leave on that date or make arrangements for your own housing beyond that day). If you plan to stay in Galway after the program ends, you will be responsible for organizing and incurring all additional housing and food costs. You have no commitments to the program on the day the program ends.

It is advised that students travel in pairs, if not larger groups. Use the Blackboard site and share flight information, or plan travel arrangements during the one-credit course.

After you arrive, remember to call, email, or text your family to let them know you have arrived safely. This will not only save them from worry, but will keep the Global Education Office from receiving panicked phone calls regarding your whereabouts.

Coursework

A list of textbook requirements and syllabi will be distributed in advance of the program sometime in late April or May. At the University, students have computer access, internet, and library privileges.

During your stay in Galway, you will study at the:

National University of Ireland
Galway
University Road, Galway, Ireland.

<http://www.nuigalway.ie/>

With over 16,000 students and more than 2,200 staff, NUI Galway has a distinguished reputation for teaching and research excellence in the fields of arts, social science, and Celtic studies; business, public policy and law; engineering and informatics; medicine, nursing and health sciences; and science. In 2009 NUI Galway was named the Sunday Times University of the Year for 2009/10, while in the Times Higher Education World University Ranking; the University has jumped almost 250 places in two years to rank 243rd in the world.

From Queen's College to National University of Ireland, the University's past is intertwined with the history of Galway and Ireland. The Quadrangle first opened its doors to 63 students on 30th October 1849 and the University, then known as Queen's College was born. The University was built at the height of the famine as part of a public works relief scheme and was one of three Queen's Colleges, the others located in Dublin and Belfast.

That Quadrangle building, built in local limestone in a Tudor Gothic architectural style, is a replica of Christ Church at the University of Oxford. The 'Quad' still stands proudly at the heart of the University today as a testament to its past. It is now used primarily for administrative purposes and houses the offices of the President and the Vice-Presidents.

In the first academic year, 1849 -1850, the University began with three faculties, Arts, Medicine and Law, but there were also schools of Agriculture and Engineering. Female students later joined the student body and in 1906 Alice Perry graduated from the college, believed to be the first female engineering graduate in the world to receive a first class honors degree in civil engineering.

There are many historical buildings on campus, such as the James Mitchell Museum, established in 1952. This geological museum contains high quality collections sampling a significant diversity of the planet's geology, with a fine display of fossils, minerals and rocks.

CLASSES AT THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF IRELAND, GALWAY

Students will earn 6 credits and should choose 2 courses chosen from this list below. All of the courses fulfil COLL 300.

Courses
THEA 460: Topics in Theatre: Irish Playwright Brian Friel
FILM 351: Themes in Irish Cinema
ENGL 465: Modern Irish Literature
GEOL 407: Geological and Environmental Perspectives on the Galway Bay Region (GER 2, no lab)

Excursions & Activities

OFFICIAL AND PERSONAL TRAVEL OPTIONS

The program includes a weekend excursion to Dublin (Friday-Sunday), as well as an overnight excursion in Northern Ireland (Friday-Saturday). The program will also include day trips to various locations, including the Aran Islands. Excursions are mandatory, unless otherwise specified by the program director.

GUIDEBOOKS

Consider purchasing a travel guidebook prior to leaving the United States to help you make personal travel plans. These can be purchased at bookstores like Barnes & Noble, or online. Some guidebook publishers include:

- Eyewitness Travel Guide (<http://us.dk.com/static/cs/us/11/travel/intro.html>)
- Fodor's (<http://www.fodors.com>)
- Let's Go (<http://www.letsgo.com>)
- Lonely Planet (<http://www.lonelyplanet.com>)
- Rick Steves' Books
(http://www.ricksteves.com/books/update/update_menu.htm)

Housing and Meals

HOUSING

Students will share University apartments which come fully furnished, including an equipped kitchen.

Meals

Breakfasts M-F are included, as are lunches M-Th with packed lunches on Fridays for excursions. Three dinners per week are also included, and some meals are covered during overnight program excursions.

Note: In keeping with the policy of the W&M Office of Residence Life, the Reves Center does not offer housing for the family of any students participating in W&M-sponsored study abroad programs. Also, family members or friends may not participate in any program activities or excursions. If you have family or friends who want to visit you while abroad it is recommended they do so after the completion of the program.

Communication

ONLINE

Our students have computer access on the NUI Galway campus. Whether you take a laptop is entirely up to you, but do keep in mind the issues of security and baggage restrictions. And remember you will have to carry it yourself. Students have access to internet service in the student apartments through a Local Area Network with e-mail and internet access available at a small cost.

LANDLINE PHONES

In order to use a public phone in Galway, you need a prepaid phone card, available at various stores. There are several types of international phone cards which allow you to call the U.S. inexpensively.

CELL PHONES

The Reves Center provides either basic cell phones or SIM cards with local phone numbers for all participants. Throughout the program you are expected to keep your cell phone with you, turned on, and charged with both battery and prepaid credits. This is to ensure you will have it at your disposal for any emergencies and for the director or other W&M official to be able to contact you in case of an emergency.

PLACING INTERNATIONAL PHONE CALLS

See the “Handy Information” section for a time zone conversion chart before you call!

Calling Galway from the United States: Dial 011 +-353-91 + Local Number

Calling the United States from Galway: Dial 00-1+area code + phone number.

Emergency Numbers

Police: 112 or 999

Medical Emergencies: 112 or 999

Fire: 112 or 999

Health & Safety

IMMUNIZATION

Students are encouraged to consider updating standard immunizations against meningitis and tetanus. Immunization against tetanus and hepatitis A are usually recommended; hepatitis B may also be recommended for long-term travelers. For current information concerning recommended protection against communicable diseases for those planning to travel abroad, you may check the Center for Disease Control's website at <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/ireland.htm>. If you prefer to talk to someone in person about the currently recommended immunizations, you can call Travel Health of Williamsburg at 757-220-9008 (located at 287 McLaws Circle), or consult with a physician in your area who has some expertise concerning immunizations for international travel.

STAYING WELL/GETTING SICK

The water in Ireland is very safe to drink. Milk is pasteurized and dairy products are safe for consumption. Local meat, poultry, seafood, fruit and vegetables are generally considered safe to eat.

If you become ill, please alert your Program Director for assistance in finding you medical care. Please remember to pay for any medical care at the time it is received, and to keep your receipts to submit to your insurance company for reimbursement upon your return.

For the duration of the program, the Director is always available to assist students in obtaining medical care. The staff at the National University of Ireland Galway is also always available to assist students in obtaining medical care. Useful information on preparing for medical emergencies before you go abroad is provided at <https://step.state.gov/step/>

Travel & Country Information

We encourage all students to research their study abroad destination. The State Department has important information available online. Be sure to read up on Irish history, culture, and current events before your arrival, as well. Knowing as much as possible about where you are going will not only make you more comfortable during your time in the country, but will also allow you to talk more knowledgeably with your host family and new friends.

We strongly recommend that you register your travel plans with the U.S. State Department at this website:

<https://step.state.gov/step/>

This will help the State Department contact you if there is a family emergency in the U.S., or if there is a crisis where you are traveling. On this website you can find information ranging from geographic and political descriptions of the country, to special health & safety announcements.

Galway

Galway or the City of Galway is a city in County Galway and is the fifth largest and the fastest-growing city in Ireland. It is also the third largest city in the Republic and the only city in the Province of Connacht. Located on the west coast of Ireland, it sits on the River Corrib between Lough Corrib and Galway Bay. The population of Galway city and its environs is 72,729 according to the 2006 census. Galway is known as Ireland's Cultural Heart (Croí Cultúrtha na hÉireann) and is renowned for its vibrant lifestyle and numerous festivals, celebrations and events. Every July, Galway hosts the Galway Arts Festival which is known for its famous Macnas parade.

Galway has a strong local economy with complementary business sectors, including manufacturing industry, tourism, retail and distribution, education, healthcare and services that include financial, construction, cultural, and professional.

Most (47%) of the people employed in Galway work in either the commerce or professional sector, with a large number (17%) also employed in manufacturing. Most industry and manufacturing in Galway, like the rest of Ireland, is hi-tech (e.g. ICT, medical equipment, electronics, chemicals, etc.), due to the Celtic Tiger economic boom. Tourism is also of major importance to the city, which had over 2.1 million visitors in 2000, and produced revenue of over €400 million.

FOR FUN: LIGHT READING AND MOVIES

Following are a few books regarding Ireland. Check them out, or consider looking for other books to put you in an Ireland mood prior to – or during – your time abroad. Don't worry; you won't be tested on them!

BOOKS

THE BOOK OF EVIDENCE
By John Banville

THE BUTCHER BOY
By Patrick McCabe

TV & MOVIES

This mini-series is based on very popular crime novels that are set in Galway, and the series is all filmed right in Galway. Not necessarily the best TV you'll see (and makes Galway city seem like a crime ridden place which it really isn't at all), but it does give you a chance to check out the city. Also, this is available on Netflix instant.

Some Critically Acclaimed and Iconic Irish Films Well Worth Watching Before Departure:

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Will I need a visa?

A visa for summer study in Ireland not required for U.S. citizens. Citizens of other countries should check with their home government's foreign ministry.

What airport will I fly into? Do all W&M students travel together on the same flights?

Please refer to the section in this handbook on "Traveling to Galway" for specific information. W&M students do not necessarily take the same flight. However if you wish to travel with other students you can arrange and communicate through Blackboard or Facebook.

Can I arrive earlier or stay longer than the program dates?

Yes, you may but you will be responsible for making your own accommodation arrangements. You will NOT be able to stay in the housing provided during the program.

If my family or friends visit, may they stay with me?

No, they will need to make their own arrangements for accommodations. Please advise your program director if you expect family or friends to visit you during the program. Friends and family may not participate in program activities. If you want to travel or meet up with family or friends, it is suggested you plan this AFTER the completion of the program.

Am I required to participate in all excursions provided by the program?

Yes, unless your program director says otherwise. The excursions supplement the coursework and expand cultural learning.

Will I need to seek post approval for the courses I take?

No, all of the courses offered in the W&M faculty-led summer programs have already been approved.

Will my grades be posted on my transcript?

Yes, the grades you receive will be posted on your W&M transcript and will be calculated into your GPA.

Can I take class pass/fail?

No, this is not an option.

Do I need to take my own sheets and towels?

Students will be housed in NUI Galway student apartments. Towels and linens are included. However, if you plan to travel before or after the program, it is advisable to bring a light towel and linens for overnight stays in hostels.

Will my study-abroad facility have a fitness center/gym for student use?

The National University of Ireland Galway has a fitness center for student use.

How much spending money will I need?

This amount varies based on your normal spending habits, especially in regards to eating meals out and how much shopping you like to do. Students reported spending between $750-1,000 during the program. Many students reported spending $1,000 or more, but again this depends on your personal spending habits. Former students DO NOT recommend traveler's checks. They recommend carrying some cash and your credit or debit card.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

ADDITIONAL TIPS FROM PAST STUDENTS

PLACES TO SEE IN AND NEAR GALWAY

- Athenry – Medieval Town with Arts and Heritage Centre
- Battle of Aughrim Interpretive Center
- St. Jarlath's Wheel – Taum
- Galway Bay
- Tropical Butterfly Center
- The Aran Islands, located in Galway Bay
- Eyre Square – Galway City
- Kirwan's Lane – Galway City
- Clifden in West Galway
- Portumna Castle
- Coole Park
- Thoor Ballylee
- Turoe Pet Farm
- Dunguaire Castle
- Mill Museum – Tuam
- Quiet Man film locations

TRAVEL

- Many of the excursions are geology-related

LIVING

- "The housing quality was phenomenal. Nice rooms, plenty of space, regularly cleaned, fresh towels."

MONEY

- Be sure to call your bank and put a travel notice on your debit AND credit cards. Otherwise, purchases and withdrawals may be declined due to suspected fraud.
- Discuss with your bank the fees associated with international transactions and withdrawals. The bank may be able to inform you of a partner bank in Galway that you can use to withdraw cash and avoid fees.
- Students reported spending $750-$1,500 during the program. Many students reported spending $1,000 or more, but again this depends on your personal spending habits. Former students recommend carrying some cash and your credit or debit card.
- Former students have stated that food was their greatest expense while in Galway.

- “You will use more cash than you think. Many places do not accept debit or credit cards, and constant cash withdrawals can be expensive, so come prepared.”

PACKING SMART

- A good way to keep a copy of your passport “with you” at all times is to scan your passport and email it to yourself. Access to your passport, therefore, will be possible at any computer with internet access.
- Returning students recommend that your carry-on be a backpack rather than a handheld bag if you plan to do any extra traveling and for field trips.
- The weather in Galway will be much cooler than summer back on the East Coast of the U.S. Be sure to bring layers.

COURSEWORK

- Students are able to fulfill GER 2 by completing the Geology course and GER 4a/5 or COLL 200 by completing the Music course. All courses fulfill COLL 300.

IRISH CULTURE

- Potentially controversial topics to avoid would include any stereotypes or clichés about Ireland; Northern Ireland and the role of the UK in Irish politics; or divorce, homosexuality, or abortion. Many people in Ireland are devoutly religious or conservative in their social values. Referring to the Republic of Ireland as part of the UK or Britain might not be taken well. Irish people are fairly nationalistic, so avoid partaking in any criticism of Ireland.

MEETING PEOPLE

- Good conversation topics could include Irish literature, music, history, or sports – especially Gaelic games.
- If out socializing, asking for recommendations on the drinks available in the establishment being visited could be a good conversation-starter.
- Being overly emotional, loud, touchy, or friendly early on in a friendship may be seen as fake and put people off.
